

Daniel Scher

For the past 3 years, I have been a teacher in Martin Luther King Jr. school in Schenectady. Prior to that, I taught an emotionally-disturbed high school class at Parson's (Albany) and was a teacher at the Hebrew Academy. I am married to a fellow HACD alum, Aliza Scher (formerly Halpert). We have one amazing child, Ellie Hannah, and another on the way (due December 26th, 2011). Aliza is also a teacher in a public school (Zoller) in Schenectady.

She and I both hold very fond memories of our time at the Hebrew Academy. I remember singing along to songs to prod along our Hebrew and Bible teacher, Mr. Yoni Haddad, to perform magic tricks for us. Along with all of the other teachers, he inspired us to work hard and do our best.
