

Howard Teitelman is the CSO for a trading firm in NYC. He received his BS in Engineering Management Systems in 1996 and an MS in Operations Research in 1998 both from Columbia University. He was selected as an early inductee into Tau Beta Pi, the National Engineering Honor Society and Omega Rho, the International Operations Research Honor Society. Howard served as a past President of Columbia's chapter of the American Institute of Industrial Engineers. He also designed a curriculum (titled Trading and Technology in Today's Financial Markets) and taught the course on the graduate level at Columbia's School of Engineering and Applied Science.

Howard graduated Hebrew Academy in 1988 and was Salutatorian of Albany High School in 1992.

He lives in Teaneck, NJ with his wife Meital and their three children – Yehuda, Tiferet and Ahava - where they are very involved in Jewish causes and the community at large. Howard is the son of Dr. Bernard z"l and Joyce Teitelman and the sibling of Rabbi Lawrence Teitelman and Elana Teitelman Lew.