

Robert Kovach '81

Robert is a CPA, who has been the CFO of the Jewish Federation since 2000. He is on the board of the Hebrew Academy of the Capital District, and the Treasurer of the Knights of Pythias Federal Credit Union.

Rob lives in Albany with his wife, Ilana, and their 5 children. Their 2 oldest children are graduates of the school, while their 3 youngest children are students in the school. They are members of Congregation Beth Abraham Jacob.

Rob has been collecting and reading comic books since 1974 and has spoken several times on how Jews have influenced them.